EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

(Pursuant to the provisions of Section 102 of the Companies Act, 2013)

The Companies Act, 2013 aims to ensure transparency in the transactions and dealings between the related parties of the Company. The provisions of Section 188(1) of the Companies Act, 2013 that govern the Related Party Transactions, requires that for entering into any contract or arrangement as mentioned herein below with the related party, the Company must obtain prior approval of the Board of Directors and in case of the Company having a paid up share capital of rupees Ten crore or more, prior approval of the shareholders by way of an Ordinary Resolution must be obtained:

1. Sale, purchase or supply of any goods or materials;
2. Selling or otherwise disposing of, or buying, property of any kind;
3. Leasing of property of any kind;
4. Availing or rendering of any services;
5. Appointment of any agent for purchase or sale of goods, materials, services or property
6. Such related party's appointment to any office or place of profit in the company, its subsidiary company or associate company and
7. Underwriting the subscription of any securities or derivatives thereof, of the Company.

The Board of Directors of the Company is of the opinion that the Company by being in existence for last three decades in the software industry with efficient systems, stringent operational control processes and also a subsidiary of Virtusa Consulting Services Private Limited can extend/avail the services to/from its Parent Company and its associate Companies.

The provisions of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (SEBI LODR Regulations) consider a transaction with a related party material if the transaction/transactions to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds ten percent of the annual consolidated turnover of the company as per the last audited financial statements of the company. Further, the SEBI LODR Regulations requires all material related party transactions to be approved by the shareholders through an ordinary resolution and the related parties shall abstain from voting on such resolutions.

The company envisages that the transaction(s) entered into with its related parties whether individually and/or in aggregate would exceed the stipulated threshold of ten percent of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per the last audited and financial statements of the Company during a financial year of the Company. The Company therefore required approval of the shareholders through an ordinary resolution for entering into contract(s)/arrangement(s)/transaction(s) with related parties upto a maximum amount as mentioned in the resolution from the financial year 2017-2018 and onwards.

All related parties shall abstain from voting on these resolutions.

The particulars of the transaction pursuant to the provision of Section 188 and the Companies (Meeting of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 are as under:
